

Welcome!

GENESYS WORKS.

We are looking forward for the opportunity to learn and grow together throughout this course. Success in any class begins with you. Whether it is a traditional or online course you must set aside time for success. We suggest you set aside time outside of the lecture and lab to go over materials and finish any homework you might have. You are never alone; we are just a few keystrokes away! Any questions you might have can be answered in the zoom meeting each day or slack in the off-hours. We are here to help you succeed, so reach out when you need something. In the coming days check your inbox for more information.

Dates and Times, you will need!
